

HP Certification

Creating value to build lasting impact
Together we can reach further

Welcome to your guide to HP Certification.

The Basics

- HP University combines a curriculum of sales skills training, certifications & service qualifications, and product training to prepare partners to offer and service the HP portfolio.
- You require an HP Learner ID also known as a PL number to transact with HP online learning portals. This Person Live (PL) number remains with you , even if you change Employers.
- To participate in our session, navigate to HP University by signing in to the Partner Portal> hover over the Training tab > click HP University. Note that partners must have an HP Learner ID and password to view and sign up for courses: click here to sign up.
- You need to obtain your company's HP Locator ID to complete this sign up.
- Then log onto the Partner Portal> click on Training> Resources>HP Learner ID. Scroll down to the  button and click.
- An external pop-up website will open and all your HP learning info will be displayed on this SABA website
