Executive Biography

Pelle Aardewerk

Head of Vertical Solutions, HP Wolf Security, EMEA
Endpoint Security advisor to global Ministries and CISOs

Resume bio:

Pelle currently leads security consulting and business development for HP Wolf Security's Vertical Solutions in EMEA. He works closely with CISOs to mature their endpoint security roadmap strategy, in support of achieving better business outcomes and preventing firmware/malware/ransomware/supply chain attacks as well espionage/IP theft. Pelle supports customers and partners to leverage technology to ensure their employees can work 'happy' and 'securely' from anywhere, with a fit for purpose end point cyber security solution.

Pelle gained over 20 years of Cyber Security capabilities and experience for the likes of the Big4, ABN AMRO, Heineken, IDEXX and Shell. He delivered global OT Security, GDPR and innovative Cyber Security programs.

In his current role Pelle advises Ministries and their National Security Councils around the world on Endpoint Security strategies.

With his background across IT/OT Security, Pelle is experienced in advising C-suite executives and audit committees on the business case for cyber security technology investments and risk remediation strategies.

Pelle holds security and audit professional certifications including CISA, CISM, CGEIT and CRISC. He is a regular speaker at international industry cybersecurity, privacy, and broader IT and OT leadership events.
